

Full MBTI / DISC Report Summary

MBTI Personality Type: INFJ - 'The Advocate'

- Introverted, Intuitive, Feeling, Judging
- Deep thinker with a strong sense of purpose
- Naturally empathetic and passionate about helping others
- Prefers meaningful work that contributes to a bigger mission
- Works best in focused, well-structured environments
- Thrives when blending creativity with logic
- Strong planner who values order, responsibility, and long-term impact

"I prefer quality over quantity in communication and aim for deep, thoughtful collaboration."

DISC Personality Type: S/C - Steadiness & Compliance Blend

- Steadiness (S): Reliable, calm under pressure, loyal to teams
- Compliance (C): Precise, analytical, values rules and structure
- Respects deadlines and takes pride in accuracy
- Prefers working independently or in small teams
- Thrives in environments with clear roles and expectations
- Open to feedback and focused on continuous improvement

"I am most productive in roles that offer autonomy, structure, and purpose."

Reflection - Personality & My WIL Experience

During my Work Integrated Learning at Plums System as a Full Stack Web Developer, I noticed how well my INFJ and DISC traits aligned with my role. My attention to detail, ability to plan, and drive for meaningful outcomes helped me contribute to both backend and frontend tasks with confidence.

This understanding of my personality supports my long-term career goals in tech roles that blend creativity with structure-especially those that involve design thinking, planning, and collaborative development.